Dear LR and LS

Thank you for your letter of 13 May in which you outline further information to add to your previous statement. I appreciate you sending it to me and I will send a copy on to the Archbishop and to the Child Exploitation Section. You mention that LG is now seeing a psychologist to help manage his anxiety attacks. If you would like me to arrange for the accounts to be paid you only need to give me the name of the psychologist and I will make the necessary arrangement.

It is opportune that I heard from you yesterday as I had planned on writing to bring you up to date with a development. Last Thursday I met with the police, Father David Cappo and Tony Fuller to be brought up to date on police investigations with a particular emphasis on whether I could start to implement Towards Healing with any of the complaints received so far. The police have given me only four names I can go ahead with but have asked me not to proceed for the present with others, including your complaint on behalf of LG, as their investigations are continuing. Waiting is always frustrating and a source of anxiety but I do assure you that the process will commence once I am given consent by the police for it to do so.

Yours sincerely
