Attention: Anthony Kerin

Dear Mr Kerin,

LR & LS

I refer to your letter of July 26, 2004 to Sue Cain, the Director of Professional Standards.

I am very happy to meet with LS and LR. My intention in offering to meet with them is to provide the opportunity to have a wide ranging discussion that is of a pastoral nature. Attending the meeting would be LS and LR and myself.

I wish to talk to LR and LS about the issues that deeply concern them. I want to hear from them about their son LG and any further ways I can be of support to him and to them.

I realise that LS and LR may wish to pursue legal action against the Church. That is a separate matter. My intention in offering this meeting is in no way designed to influence this issue and accordingly the meeting should be without prejudice to any legal issues. Rather I want to engage more fully at a personal level, in order to ascertain from them directly the personal issues they might wish to highlight.

If LS and LR wish to meet on this basis would you or your clients please contact my Personal Assistant, Sue Viceli on Phone: 8210 8119 to make the necessary arrangements for the meeting.

Yours sincerely,

+ Philip Wilson
