

TO MEETING OF CONCERNED PARENTS ON 3...

Police Brian Perkins/St Anne's situation

- 21/09/91 Lenny Moshead SA Police attended an address in Dovar Gardens where BP was living. They spoke to BP and searched the premises. They removed films in canisters marked [LH]. Films were developed and showed [LH] in various stages of undress.
- 26/09/91 Police returned to Dovar Gardens address. BP was no longer living there. Police attempted unsuccessfully to locate BP.
- Early '93 BP picked up hitchhiker in southern suburbs. BP asked hitchhiker if he could store some things in shed as he (BP) was living in a caravan. Hitchhiker agreed but became suspicious when BP was frequently visiting checking gear.
- May '93 Hitchhiker discovered pornographic material in BP's boxes and contacted Channel 9 news. Channel 9 contacted SA Police
- May '93 SA Police mount Operation Deny. Implicated in this operation are BP and 3 other suspected offenders.
- 10/09/93 6:30am raids were conducted ^{SIMULTANEOUSLY} (consecutively) at the premises of all 4 suspects including Hackham West address where BP resided with his son. BP was arrested and taken into custody.
BP charged with Inducing [LH] to expose his body
Indecently assault of [LH]
Possession of child pornography
Remanded in custody
- 30/09/93 Appeared in court Remanded in custody
- 14/10/93 Appeared in court Remanded in custody
- 21/10/93 Appeared in court Remanded in custody
- late '93 Appealed to Supreme Court Bail Granted
BP skipped bail
Warrant issued for BP' arrest
- 1998 Queensland Police contacted SA Police informing them of whereabouts of BP.
- 1998 Greg Ram SA Police applied through DPP for extradition. Application refused as likelihood of conviction slim due to "mental incapacity" of victims. Cost was also a possible factor.
- Current (21/10/01) Police are still aware of the location of BP. (Queensland)

People told he had a car accident & went to hospital

Police Brian Perkins/St Anne's situation

21/09/91 Lenny Moshead SA Police attended an address in Dovar Gardens where BP was living. They spoke to BP and searched the premises. They removed films in canisters marked [LH]. Films were developed and showed [LH] in various stages of undress.

26/09/91 Police returned to Dovar Gardens address. BP was no longer living there. Police attempted unsuccessfully to locate BP.

Early '93 BP picked up hitchhiker in southern suburbs. BP asked hitchhiker if he could store some things in shed as he (BP) was living in a caravan. Hitchhiker agreed but became suspicious when BP was frequently visiting checking gear.

May '93 Hitchhiker discovered pornographic material in BP's boxes and contacted Channel 9 news. Channel 9 contacted SA Police.

May '93 SA Police mount Operation Deny. Implicated in this operation are BP and 3 other suspected offenders.

10/09/93 6:30am raids were conducted consecutively at the premises of all 4 suspects including Hackham West address where BP resided with his son. BP was arrested and taken into custody.
BP charged with Inducing [LH] to expose his body
Indecently assault of [LH]
Possession of child pornography
Remanded in custody

30/09/01 Appeared in court Remanded in custody

14/10/93 Appeared in court Remanded in custody

21/10/93 Appeared in court Remanded in custody
Bail Review - McSweeney
Appealed to Supreme Court Bail Granted

late '93
21/2/94 → BP skipped bail
Warrant issued for BP' arrest

1998 Queensland Police contacted SA Police informing them of whereabouts of BP.

1998 Greg Ram SA Police applied through DPP for extradition. Application refused as likelihood of conviction slim due to "mental incapacity" of victims. Cost was also a possible factor.

Current Police are still aware of the location of BP. (Queensland)