Dear Chris,

You will be aware that the pastoral care, support and advocacy, provided through this office, has included a response in respect to "secondary survivors", who may be family, colleagues and supporters etc of the primary victims.

This recognition has also extended to members of faith communities in the Archdiocese, directly affected by clergy sexual abuse and many of our clients have sought help in this capacity.

I have clarified that the new areas of assistance referred to in the attached information pages and brochure are also addressing secondary survivors' concerns.

Therefore we would ask you to consider completing the relevant sections of the enclosed authorisation form and returning it to this office at your earliest convenience. Please call us if you require further clarification.

Yours sincerely,

Helen Last
