Blessed Self,
Swami Bhakti
Hari Om -

Have received everything you sent, thank you, cards were precious and I liked 'em. To see the mag. coming here in the name of Satsangi was a big surprise but after, I realised it was from you. I had made a joke, but thanks anyway.

We do remember you often, specially me. Many changes have taken place and now I am satisfied with the general atmosphere of Ganga Darshan, although we continue to have the same problems with IT and other matters.

Work here has taken off like anything and it is really great to see everything move smoothly. Everyone is fine. In Sannyas course we had 25 students and they are all staying. Chinese people are here and Chinese food is on the menu at least 3 times a week. People (Swamis) are actually getting plump and red.

Altho' I am not get chance to write to you often my dear, I will make sure to send you our news bulletin regularly every 3 months for your general info.

I have been unable to find another Bhakti for myself, altho' I am confident that a Prince Charming is going to come to you soon (if you already don't have one by now).

Well dear, I do miss you and remember you. Whenever I close my eyelids, I see you with a big silly smile.

May God (meaning me) bless you with all the best in the world and I do look forward to the day when our paths cross once again in the sands of time.

Yours Swam

A letter sent to me by Swami Niranjani, not long after I left India and had sent him a copy of Playboy (which he had said he wanted when I asked him before leaving if there was anything I could send)
IT stands for Income Tax - something I was working on before I left
