leave here but it would seem hard for me to gather the courage. I would especially hate leaving you 'cause your so ~~is~~ a real shishy!

APH has been away with swamiji to Canberra she said it was totally boring. The first night he got APH to sleep in his room she said he kept on asking her questions. He also asked her to get into bed with him but I suppose it was o.k. she slept with APN the next night she went to. I feel quite shy around swamiji. I can't figure out why though!

Oh well I'm going to dream-land now see ya later)
