5. Policy Information

5.1 Overview

The School has adopted this policy and procedure for dealing with complaints from former students of the School of sexual misconduct which occurred whilst they were attending School.

~~AA~~ The School encourages survivors to present their complaint to the School, the Police, the Child Protection Agency or any other competent bodies. → The Royal Commission

If the Complainant authorises the School to report the complaint to the Police, the School will do so. If the Complainant does not authorise the School to report the complaint to the Police then the School will only report the complaint to the Police in a format so that the Complainant is not identified.

~~AA~~ The School will respect the rights of the Complainant's privacy to make their own informed choices about whether to engage with the School's processes or to seek assistance elsewhere including their own legal advice.

5.2 Support

- ONLINE*
1. On receiving a complaint of sexual misconduct from a Complainant either verbally or in writing, the Principal will appoint a support person to assist the Complainant. The support person will encourage the Complainant to report the matter to the Police.
 2. The support person will provide assistance to the Complainant during this process including assistance to lodge a written complaint to the School and providing an explanation of the process.
 3. The Principal will offer to the Complainant professional counselling up to the completion of these processes being the investigation and, if applicable, the Pastoral Support and Assistance Scheme. The Complainant authorises the Principal to seek a report from the counsellor or other provider of counselling services as to the need for ongoing counselling as a result of sexual misconduct.
 4. The Director of Professional Standards of the Diocese will provide assistance to the Principal or the Complainant in arranging such counselling.

5.3 Complaint Process

5. (a) On receipt of a complaint of sexual misconduct the Principal will determine whether the Complaint concerns:
- (i) a current employee of the School;
 - (ii) a priest or church worker licensed by the Bishop who was a former employee of the School;
 - (iii) a former employee of the School;
 - (iv) a deceased employee of the School.
6. (a) If the complaint concerns a current employee of the School then the complaint will be dealt with in accordance with the School's disciplinary and misconduct policies and procedures.
- (b) If the current employee holds a licence from the Bishop the Principal will notify the Bishop as soon as possible.
- (c) If the complaint concerns a former employee the School will investigate the matter in accordance with the policy and procedure attached and marked "A".
- (d) If the complaint concerns a priest or church worker who is no longer an employee of the School then the Principal will refer the complaint to the Director of Professional Standards of the Diocese to investigate the matter in accordance with the Dioceses complaint procedures and including if appropriate the Pastoral Support and Assistance Scheme. The Director of Professional Standards will keep the School informed of the process of the investigation, and the process and outcome of the PSAS.
-  (e) If the complaint concerns a deceased employee the School will deal with the complaint in accordance with the attached policy and procedure marked "A".
7. The School adopts the scheme of Pastoral Support and Assistance offered by the Diocese to adult survivors of sexual abuse. Attached and marked "B" are the guidelines in relation to the process of making and assessing an application for Pastoral Support and Assistance.

8. If after investigation (either by the School pursuant to the procedures attached and marked "A" or by the Diocese) the complaint is substantiated then the Complainant will be invited to submit an application to the PSAS.

who would be about this? why?

How generous?

Unbelievable Very insulting

50 years too late!

9. The Complainant will be referred by the Principal to the Director of Professional Standards of the Diocese who will offer assistance with completing the application and process of the PSAS.

Bureaucracy

10. In accordance with the PSAS the application will be assessed by an independent assessor who will make recommendations to the Board of Management of the School. An independent assessor's recommendations are binding on the Board of Management of the School.

11. The maximum payment of Pastoral Support and Assistance that can be recommended is $60,000.00 for any Complainant which also includes any payments of counselling provided by the School.
