Dear Rebecca & Mrs Davies,

Just to let you know, after talking to our daughter, [REDACTED] has no intention of quitting your studio. She just wants to focus on what she loves & that is dancing. She has invested too much time in it. So she will continue to do so.

I understand the name will eventually change. Just a suggestion, maybe you can consider changes to the uniform? Something a bit more conservative? I think this will help the reputation of your dance studio.

All the best and business as usual Saturday.

Kindest regards
[REDACTED]
