Hi BZN,

I must admit that I am a little surprised by the vehement tone of your response to my email. I imagine that Rebecca has been unable to reply to you in person because she has been sick in bed and quite feverish since her return from New Zealand, but I did speak to her briefly before emailing you to confirm that REDA would not be returning to RGDANCE and she asked that I sign the email as being from the both of us because her regrets that REDA was leaving the school and her ongoing positive feelings towards him are quite genuine and heartfelt.

All sadness about REDA's departure aside however, I was for the most part emailing you in just the same manner as I would have contacted any other parent who was leaving RGDANCE with an outstanding balance of fees remaining. And in this vein I would like to ask for some further information about your intentions with regards to the outstanding balance of $4436.00 which is due to be paid on REDA's fees. Do you mean that you have no intention of attempting to pay off the amount due for REDA's 2007 and 2008 dance classes at RGDANCE? Or do you have a schedule of repayments that you would like to propose for settling your account over a period of time?

Obviously it would be best for all concerned if we were able to settle the outstanding fee balance which is due to be paid without recourse to a more formal process of debt recovery.

Kind regards,

John Barnier

Hi John,

It is such a shame that Rebecca couldn't reply herself to my email. It is also very sad that due to the present situation of us going bankrupt REDA had to leave RGDANCE.

I would also like to add that on two occasions I wanted to leave and was convinced to stay. The first time I was told by Grant not to worry about the fees until I get back on my feet. He also added that it was more important to RGDANCE to have REDA and BZM at the studio but said that they couldn't cover REDA, so I removed REDA from the studio. This outstanding amount dates back to then.

Maybe I should go back on my word and hand our computer over to Jason. We were put through hell last year because we had that computer but didn't want to hurt the innocent members of your family. Trust me I wasn't trying to protect Grant. Rebecca knows exactly what I'm talking about.

The way this has been handled is disgusting. It goes to show how cold Rebecca Davies is, and how little she cares for the children in her care. Thank God [REDACTED] was forced to leave.

Hi [BZN],

It's a shame to hear that circumstances prevent [REDACTED] continuing at RGDANCE. We've loved having him here and it would have been great if he were able to continue his dance studies with us.

No doubt you'll be pleased to hear that you have now nearly paid off the outstanding balance from [REDACTED]'s fees for last year but I'm sure you'll understand that his 2008 fees are also well overdue. We will need the total outstanding balance of $4436.00 to be settled as soon as possible. To that end please find attached in PDF copies of our invoices for [REDACTED]'s currently outstanding fees for dance classes. If you could give us an indication of when you believe you will be able to pay this amount it would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks and best wishes,

John Barnier and Rebecca Davies
