Dear Rebecca and Grant,

I attended yesterdays meeting and as a new parent to the RG dance family would like to extend my support for what has been a very difficult period for you.

The meeting raised more questions than answers- John's role and the comment entertained from the floor. I have no knowledge of any rumour (being new to the school) but the ensuing discussion indicated that the concerns between the parent and the school have not been dealt with satisfactorily.

As a parent I expect that as the principals of the school you carry the burden of responsibility for the behaviour of students and teachers at the school. For our part we must reinforce positive behaviours and ensure our children abide by the policies and procedures laid down by the school. We have chosen your school with great care after almost a year of consideration and were delighted with your professionalism, enthusiasm and interaction with the students at the summer workshop.

I hope that you resolve any outstanding issues with the parent involved and get on with what you do so well- Realise the goals and aspirations of our children. The excitement and enthusiasm of the students and their attendance is confirmation of your remarkable talents.

Let's move on to making this the best year for both students and the school.

Sincerely

REDACTED

Best Regards
