Dear Bishop,

I have contacted Rev'd Andrew Duncan and had a telephone conversation with him. He was quite hostile and angry.

He initially said that he was not prepared to relinquish his holy orders. After venting for a while he then said he was open to the idea of writing to you to indicate he would relinquish his orders. He asked me to contact him back next Monday to discuss further after he had some time to consider his position.

Andrew also stated that if his risk management plan was to continue he would reconsider continuing to be involved in any way with the Anglican church.

I will update you on my progress after speaking with him on Monday.

Kind Regards

Michael Elliott
