

CV: Peter Johnstone OAM

Peter Johnstone has been President of Catholics for Renewal since its establishment in 2011. He is semi-retired following a career in public service in senior executive/CEO positions at all levels of Australian government, including Director-General of the Victorian Department of Community Services from 1984 to 1989. He is principal of PJ Governance and Chair of the Jesuit College of Spirituality within the University of Divinity.

Peter has served on multiple other public and community boards of governance, including the Catholic Commission for Justice, Development and Peace for Melbourne Catholic Archdiocese, Deputy Chair of National Seniors Australia, Chair of Catholic Social Services Vic., and interim Chair of the Victorian Equal Opportunity Commission. He was Chair of VincentCare Victoria from 2009 to 2013, and of Jesuit Social Services for 13 years to 2008.

Peter is a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and of the Australian Institute of Public Administration (Vic). He was awarded Life Membership of the Victorian Local Governance Association in 2007. He has a BA (Admin) from Canberra University and a Diploma in Company Directorship, and in 2016 qualified for his MA (Theology). He is married with four daughters and six grandchildren.
