Dear Mr Owen

I have just finished speaking with you today on the phone and I feel very sad to hear your story. I have taken note of your concerns in relation to the testimony provided to the Forde Inquiry and I will look into the records you refer to.

As discussed, I enclose here for you a copy of the report of the Commission of Inquiry into Abuse of Children in Queensland Institutions. There are very few copies left but I have been told I can distribute the few remaining copies in special circumstances and I feel it is appropriate to give one to you.

I have also included for you a copy of the DVD recording of the Apology given by the then Prime Minister, Kevin Rudd. You would be aware of this Apology being given in Parliament in 2009 and I thought you might also like to have a copy on DVD.

If you have not seen the Apology before, please note that you might find it a bit upsetting and please think about having a support person with you when you first watch it.

Kind regards,

Heidi Mathieson
