

Adrian Nisbett

REDACTED

20 Sep 2004

Mr John Weeks
Headmaster
Knox Grammar School

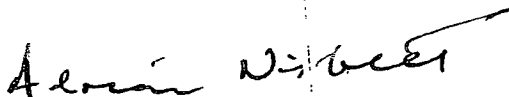

Dear John,

Thanks for your letter and, yes, I am enjoying my leave. Since returning from overseas I have been pretty busy, though in a fairly relaxed way, if that is not a contradiction! I have been playing a lot of golf, researching my book on cheetahs and learning Afrikaans (a real challenge).

I have now finalised my plans for working with the Cheetah Conservation Fund. I will be travelling to Namibia towards the end of February next year and I will be working at CCF for about three months. Thereafter I will sit down and write! This is a great opportunity for me and I am really looking forward to the experience. As such, my original plan to accept the redundancy offered to me will enable me to take on this next stage in my life. Though it is not easy to farewell Knox after so many rewarding years, the prospect of working in a field which has long been a passion of mine, is very exciting.

So, I am pleased to accept your offer. In doing so, I want to thank you for your kindness and understanding, which I have greatly appreciated. I will look forward to talking with you again.

Yours sincerely,

Adrian Nisbett