

ARH

From the Headmaster

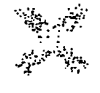

10 NOV 199

Dear ARH,

Thank you for your open and very honest letter regarding our recent conversation.

I honestly do not know what advice to give, at the moment. I suspect it lies in pro-actively presenting yourself and being appropriately direct with the 'managers'. A little time and a few good

PTG

Responses on your part should build a "corpus" of confidence which is the underpinning of the solution.

I will certainly play my part. I do believe recovery is possible!

Regards,

Peter