Dear ATH,

I appreciated your reply.

I'm happy to quietly proceed with, at least, two of the points you raise. It is difficult with the 'female teacher' one as our need for coaches for sports limits my capacity to engage more female staff members. Certainly your view of parent involvement is coloured by your interest in Christian schools and State Primaries - they certainly do encourage this and seek it for they strive to be 'community schools'. Knox's circumstances, historic and geographic, have led us in another direction. However, we are not aloof and apart, but very ready to listen and to learn and to adjust.

Yours sincerely,

(Dr.) Ian Paterson
