Gents,

Just to let you know that CLC has appeared on Greg's radar as a potential bully. Our plan is to convene a meeting with you involved with two aims:

- 1) To discuss how he is travelling
- 2) To let them know of a few examples of his bullying behaviour

-Hopefully we can nip both in the bud. The angle in will certainly be to discuss how he is travelling.

I'll see when parents are available to come in late this week/ early next week.

Are there any times that particularly do/don't suit- I am away at a Conference on Monday.

Regards,
Andrew
