Dear Pastor Smith,

I am writing in reply to your letter of 8 December 1993.

When I began teaching in the late 1960's it was quite acceptable to cuddle children or to allow them to sit on your knee. There have been many changes in recent years and this activity is now frowned upon.

In my time at Northside I have allowed children to sit on my knee. Due to the changing attitudes this is being questioned. I give my guarantee that in allowing this activity I did not touch any child indecently.

Yours sincerely,

KEN SANDILANDS
