My Dear^{CKH}

I know it is not Christmas, but I once again thought of you when I saw this little Christmas stocking stuffed full of goodies (almost good enough to eat!) Santa certainly is a clever fellow.

Thank you for coming!) to visit me at Beale St. Your friendship is appreciated & enjoyed. You certainly have shown an aptitude to express (symbol) yourself - thankyou, again.

I was surprised seeing your serving last Thursday, for I thought you were going back to Syd. earlier in the week.

My parents have been here now for a full week & although I have been very close to dis-inheritance several times things seemed to have settled down now. They're here for another week. Parental visits at least, keep one pure - not that I'm likely to stray too far from the straight and narrow.

I'm off to the Savages tonight (must go now or I'll be late) with Fr Ken & assorted dignitaries. I think she has invited me because she sees me as an ally (old guard) in the battle against that dead shit Patterson. I shall be very strong & try to remain neutral (at least until I leave Griffith to go back to my Graeme whom I love & miss.) However... in the meantime don't forget to buy some K.Y & Lubafax & think of me relaxing into (!?) a similar position !!!

Love & prayer
