I know it is not Christmas, but I once again thought of you when I saw this little Christmas stocking stuffed full of goodies (almost good enough to eat!) Santa certainly is a clever fellow.

Thank you for coming (!) to visit me at Beale St. Your friendship is appreciated + enjoyed. You certainly have shown an aptitude to expressing yourself - thank you.

I was surprised seeing you seeing Les + Thedy, for I thought you were going back to Syd. later in the week.

My parents have been here now for a full week + although I have been very close to dis-interference <sup>several times</sup>, things seemed to have settled down now. They're here for another week. Parental visits at least, keep one pure - not that I'm likely to stray too far from the straight + narrow.

I'm off to the Savages tonight (not go now as I'll be late) with Fiker + assorted dignitaries. I think she has invited me because she sees me as an ally (old guard) in the battle against that dead shit Patterson. I shall be very strong + try to remain neutral (+ least until I leave Griffith to go back to my home where I love + miss.) However, in the meantime don't forget to buy some K.Y. + Lubafax + think of me relaxing into (?) a similar position !!!
Love + peace
