Griffith Sat 5th. May

* Will have to deal with this problem which is arising yet again!! (illegible) ah!!!

My Dear <sup>CKH</sup>

I thought you would like the flower pot shown on this card – such a lovely arrangement! There's nothing like a large decorative poolside display to bring back thoughts of summer.

Alas, the cold has hit Griffith & any ideal of pool side games is out of the question. It's time to light raging fires & turn on electric blankets. I am in fact, still in bed (it's 7.30am) & having read yesterdays papers & bid farewell to G. (on his way to say Mass for the sick) my thoughts turned to you – hence this short, illegible, letter. (I do still have one small matter to attend to – the usual morning prolem – hmm!)*

The Centenary / Cathedral Celebrations are now all over & realities of moving from here & shortly farewelling Graeme have now struck,... But first a few tales from this weeks Celebrations. ....

You may recall that G. called for volunteers to feed a bandsman after last Sunday rally. Needless to say we offered to feed 2. Well if you had seen the band you would have been very willing to do some feeding! We had Douglas & Jeffrey staying & charged Douglas with selecting the bandsmen – after returning to the picnic area I discovered not two but five bandsmen (all hunks) ready and waiting for food! Douglas is incorrigible! Lucky I prepared mountains of rissoles and chicken legs! Need I say that Douglas did end up exchanging addresses with one of them! It was a great day. I felt like Hitler as I conducted the 1200 people during the hymns.
