RELEVANT EMPLOYMENT PROCEEDINGS NOTIFICATION FORM

Under Section 39 of the Commission for Children and Young People Act 1998 employers are required to provide details to the Commission for Children and Young People of any employee (either paid or unpaid) who has been the subject of relevant employment proceedings completed since 3 July 1995.

The employment proceedings that are considered relevant are all disciplinary proceedings involving reportable conduct by the employee or an act of violence committed by the employee in the course of employment and in the presence of a child.

DO NOT NOTIFY the Commission for Children and Young People of employment proceedings which found such allegations to be false, vexatious or misconceived, or which found that reportable conduct or an act of violence did not occur. Further information in relation to relevant completed employment proceedings are contained in the Working With Children Check Guidelines.

In notifying the Commission for Children and Young People, employers must determine whether the relevant employment proceeding is a Category One or Category Two employment proceeding. Information to assist employers in determining the category of the employment proceeding is provided in the Working With Children Check Guidelines.

No additional details other than the information below are required by the Commission for Children and Young People.
