Hi Morgan,

My husband recently contracted encephalitis and has been in a coma (he's out now) in hospital. The recovery is going to be months - he can barely talk and can't walk - so I will be handing the workshop organisation over to Peter Oxford until such a time as I can attend to it. I have included him in the email so that you have each other's contacts.

Could you please let him know if the dates you gave us and we didn't fill in are still available so that he can organise Penrith and Sydney, we have also had a request for Gosford.

Also there seems to be a lot of confusion in our industry over the phase in. Most of our teachers are actually subcontractors - not employees - and my understanding is that they are required to conform to the new standards as of now. Many think they don't need to worry until 2015 even with the self-employed and sub-contractors. Do you have something that is a bit clearer surrounding this that we can pass onto them - the phase in schedule is to be honest far from clear - especially for people who are not academic and many dancers were lucky to get through to year 10.

Thank you and I hope to be back on board shortly.

Hi Tracie

My availability is as follows for the upcoming months:

23, 27 AUGUST

2,3,6,9,13,16,17 SEPTEMBER

If you could work off those dates I can then lock in whatever suits the dance schools at each location.

Kind regards

Morgan

Hi Morgan,

I have had some requests for workshops. I've had a few businesses come on board to help promote these through their databases this time to reach more teachers.

Would you be able to send me dates that would suit you for the following areas:

1. Newcastle
2. South-West Sydney
3. Penrith
4. Sydney

Thanks,

Tracie-marie
