Dear Mr Mason

CEG

REDACTED

I am writing to request information from New South Wales Community Services regarding CEG current compliance with regulations following a recent media report. The media report alleges that:

- A man has been charged with the indecent assault of a four-year-old girl at a childcare centre
- Detectives arrested the man, at the REDACTED facility, following an investigation which began when the child's mother contacted the police. It's alleged the man attacked the girl a number of times.

NCAC will inform CEG of its communications with Community Services regarding concerns raised in the media report.

I would appreciate any advice you are able to provide regarding this service at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely

Susan Reade
General Manager Quality Assurance
