Phone call from CIF [REDACTED] CIF said that she has spoken to Interchange today (Janet Bunday [REDACTED] about CIE interview and she told them that something has occurred with CIE. CIF said that she did this because she wants to protect her son and other children that this person might be having contact with if he is still working. CW advised that JIRT plan is to speak with the agency's involved however some discussion needs to occur prior to this and has not happened due to leave. CIF said that she has not spoken with Disability Trust (Margaret Bowen) as she is on leave at the present time. CW advised that I had spoken to Katherine and I feel that she is best placed to advise potential counselors on strategies to engage CIE and communicate with him. CIF said that she agreed with this and gave permission for counselors to make contact with CIE's past therapist. CIF said that she thinks that the agencies are fearful that she will sue them and this is not her intention.

CIF said that she wanted to know how Royce had managed to 'slip through the net'. CW reminded her that Royce is not known on the KIDS or COPS system as having caused harm to anyone so his name would not be flagged with Working with Children checks.
