NARRATIVE (CONTINUE)

00246

Interview with CIL on Tuesday 11/6/91.

Present : CIL and D.O.D.S. Anne Thorn.

CIL and I had lunch and talked in an effort to allow CIL to relax. While he was happy to talk on a number of topics any mention of his previous Social Educator caused silence. He did however say that CID was a very good friend and helped get him out of trouble on a number of occasions.

Information from staff at Mater Dei informed me that although CID had been instructed to not have any contact with CIL as it was very apparent that CIL became emotionally disturbed after contact with him. CID failed to comply with this by continuing to meet CIL at the bus stop in the mornings and taking CIL to the local shops and later drive him to school. Because of this matter CID resigned at Mater Dei. He has now left the area and has returned to England.

CIL has a number of changes occurring in his life over the next few months. With the alleged perpetrator in England he is not currently at risk. The abuse has not been substantiated.
