Dear Janet

RE: Employee allegation – no further action

This is to inform you that on 22/03/2012 Community Services received an allegation of child abuse or neglect involving a person employed by your agency.

The details of the allegation are as follows:

Employee:	Royce Comber
Relationship or role to child or young person:	Carer CIE
Child or young person involved:
Age of child or young person:	15
Brief outline of allegation:	Employee has allegedly touched <sup>CIE</sup> on his genitals on more than one occasion. CIE is none verbal, is high functioning and does not need self care help in the bathroom.

We are providing you with this information under Section 248 of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998.

Section 25C of the Ombudsman Act 1974 requires you to notify the Ombudsman of any child abuse allegation or child abuse conviction against an employee.

Community Services will not be taking further action in relation to the allegation at this time. If you wish to discuss the matter further, please contact Dianne Neijens A/MCW on REDACTED during business hours quoting the Community Services plan number above.

Yours sincerely
