

Full details of method used in committing offence—

Class of property from where articles were stolen (dwelling-house, car shed, hotel, etc.) N.A.

How entrance effected, (to be stated in detail) N.A.

Means used (tools, etc.) Nil

Character assumed by criminal, story told, etc., and description of confederate, if any Nil

Method used in travelling or in removing articles stolen (car, lorry, horse, etc.) Nil

Peculiar act at scene (leaving note, partaking food, etc.) Nil

How property disposed of and to whom, if known N.A.

Associates (other than those arrested with offender) N.K.

Districts and places frequented by offender Darwin

Methods used in committing previous offences, if known Has committed similar acts on other children

State number of photograph, if known and whether same is a good likeness N.K.

Date arrested and by whom 10/9/75 Carolan & Saxby (CIB)

Were fingerprints taken Yes

General remarks The offender was employed by the Retta Dixon homes as a cottage parent. The complainant is a boy aged 8 years and is one of the children under the care of the offender, on the day of the offence Henderson's wife was in Darwin. He took the complainant into his house, sat him on his lap, he removed his trousers and removed the complainants shoes. He then rubbed the boys feet against his penis until he ejaculated.

Signature .....A.J. CAROLAN...
Rank and No. SGT 3/C R.N. 464

NOTE.—If space under any heading is insufficient, please continue on plain sheet, quote heading and attach.