Title: INFO FROM WITNESS [REDACTED]
Note Type: GENERAL
Applies To: NEWMAN, ROGER JOHN, P1025
Details:

Hello Roger,

I was rung today by a Ms Jo Fry. Ms Fry told me that a work colleague of hers, Ms [REDACTED], was keen to speak to police about Henderson.

Apparently Ms [REDACTED] once lived at Retta Dixon. Ms Fry (despite my efforts) did not make it clear whether Ms [REDACTED] was potentially a witness or potentially both a witness and complainant. Ms Fry says that it was the NT News report on Friday 8th February that provoked Ms [REDACTED] to seek an audience with police.

Ms [REDACTED] is employed at the [REDACTED]
 [REDACTED]

Regards,

Glen Dooley
 Crown Prosecutor
 Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions
 Northern Territory of Australia

[REDACTED] rang at about 1000hrs 12/2/02 and advised that she was present when the 2 [REDACTED] brothers, [REDACTED] had to go to the storeroom for groceries. One of the brother (believed to be [REDACTED]) came running back and said to the house parents at the time (Gwen PLATT & Judy FERGUSON) that "Mr. HENDERSON tried to root me up the bum". The house parents told the boy not to be ridiculous and sent him back to the storeroom. Mrs. [REDACTED] believes that Donald HENDERSON subsequently had his way with one or both boys. [REDACTED] is believed to now be dead but [REDACTED] may still be around. [REDACTED] also stated that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] who now lives in Jabiru was also a victim of HENDERSON. She has spoken to her brother and now that he realises that his name or picture wont be put in the paper then he would be willing to speak to me about what happened. [REDACTED] was frightened that as he is a well known person then to reveal what happened to him at the hands of HENDERSON would be very embarrassing for him and his family. [REDACTED] to contact [REDACTED] so that he will contact me in relation to making a statement. [REDACTED] Also willing to provide a statement about her observations at the time.
