Title: CIB R/S - FURTHER TO LOGS 17/148/166/205 - NOLLE PROSEQUI HISTORICAL SEX ABUSE AT RETTA DIXON HOME.
Note Type: CIB RUNNING SHEET
Applies To: NEWMAN, ROGER JOHN, P1025
Details:

NEWMAN reports collecting AJE [redacted] and Carmen McMAHON and conveying them to DPP to be briefed by Glen DOOLEY in relation to the forthcoming trial (9/12/2002) of Donald HENDERSON, who is the alleged offender in historical sexual abuse matters.

HENDERSON was convicted for trial on the 8/2/2002.

AJD [redacted] who currently resides in Perth is the third victim in the matter whilst a fourth complainant AJB [redacted] REDACTED Alice Springs has since died of cancer.

Michael CAREY of DPP viewed the file and it was his opinion that the matter would not succeed in the Supreme Court. Part of his decision was based on a separate trial application by HENDERSON which CAREY believed would be successful, thus diminishing the chances of a successful prosecution.

CAREY subsequently filed a Nolle Prosequi in relation to the matter.

Outcome explained to both REDACTED Carmen McMAHON appeared happy as the decision as she didn't feel comfortable with a further appearance before the courts.

AJE [redacted] was unhappy with the decision but understood the reasoning.

Attempts to contact AJD [redacted] in Perth to date have been unsuccessful and enquiries are continuing to locate and advise him of same.

Once AJD [redacted] located and advised matter to be finalised.
