Michael,

Thanks for looking at this case. I agree we would have been (more than) struggling to get up. Our witnesses were simply too vague given the age of the matters. I have no difficulty in a "nolle" being filed in this case.

I do think we must keep Roger Newman abreast of developments and through him the victims. I propose that I meet the two local victims (REDA and Carmen McMahon) to explain the decision to them. The other victim is in Perth. I could speak to him by 'phone. VSU would be involved.

How far have we gone in sorting the "nolle"?
