Dear [REDACTED] APL

I hope you are well [REDACTED] I am still at Shekharananda's place. Everything has been very confusing for both myself. I'm sure you understand what I mean.

The purpose of my writing this letter is to let you know that I don't think it will be suitable for [REDACTED] to come up & see you these holidays coming up in 2 weeks. I know she really wants to see you but she has been going through a lot of emotional stuff & I am concerned about her. I want her to settle down as quickly as possible. I have absolute trust in your ability & your friendship for her so please don't feel that I do not trust you as that does not come into this at all.

Last night we received a phone call from Muktimurti who has just returned from Monghyr & she had messages for all of us from Paramahansaaji. It is obvious he does not want to see any more people hurt & all of the ashram destroyed so has requested us to stop making any moves against Sw. Akhandananda as the outcome for all of the swamis will be a very negative one & one that he wishes us to avoid if possible. So I am still not sure what we will do. I would like to return to the ashram (personally) but could not force [REDACTED] to do anything. He does not want to do it. I have decided that I would like to have her as a house at her own will.

AKA - Satyanandan was referred to as Paramahansaaji which is deferential and means respect and honor.

think that would please her a great deal. She does need something to love & care for & she can put her interest into it & it can be all hers, no one else's.

Anyway I have to buzz off & pick up from school. I'm going to take her shopping for new shoes & boots for winter. It might cheer her up a bit she has been pretty miserable lately & when I tell her she can't go up to see you she will be very cut with me.

Would you write her a letter perhaps & make her feel a bit better? (about the holiday bit I mean.)

Lots of love
