Dear Scott

Your application for the position of Head Coach – Swimming, Queensland Academy of Sport, Vacancy Reference Number: LGPS 132/04

I refer to your application for the above position and at this stage of the selection process, I wish to draw your attention to an important provision which the Queensland Academy of Sport ('QAS') anticipates will be present in the employment agreement between the QAS and the successful candidate.

Clause 27 of the employment agreement deals with suitability notices issued pursuant to the Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian Act 2000 and the circumstances in which the successful candidate will be required to obtain such a notice.

Clause 27 states –

27 Suitability Notices

27.1. If at any time during the term of this agreement, the Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian Act 2000 is amended so as to require a person such as the Coach to obtain a suitability notice pursuant to that Act, the Coach acknowledges and agrees that QAS may apply to the commissioner for a suitability notice stating whether the Coach is a suitable person for child-related employment.

27.2 The Coach agrees to do all such things and execute all such documents as may be necessary or desirable to give full effect to this clause.

27.3 If the Coach:

- (a) does not comply with clause 27.2; or
- (b) is issued with a "negative notice" under section 102(1)(b) of the Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian Act 2000, the Coach acknowledges that QAS may terminate this agreement immediately under clause 20.2.

27.4 If the agreement is terminated pursuant to clause 20.2, the Coach acknowledges that there is no right of compensation for such a termination.

If you have any queries regarding the inclusion of clause 27 in the employment agreement and its effect upon the employment of the successful candidate, please contact me on REDACTED to discuss.

The QAS is currently in the process of short-listing applicants and you will be advised of the results of your application in due course.

Yours sincerely
