SUBJECT: Shane Gilbert's phone call re Scott Volkens

At approximately 8.45 am on Tuesday 24 September 2002, I received a phone call from Mr Shane Gilbert. Mr Gilbert identified himself as the husband of one of the complainants who had bought charges against Scott Volkens. Mr Gilbert requested an appointment with the Director, Alex Baumann, to discuss Scott Volkens prior to any consideration of his re-instatement at the Queensland Academy of Sport.

I advised Mr Gilbert that Mr Baumann was in a meeting and that I would speak to him in regards to arranging a meeting. Mr Gilbert gave me his phone number and I advised that I would get back to him.

At 9.35 am I called Mr Gilbert and advised him that the Director of Public Prosecutions had dropped all charges against Mr Volkens and on that decision Mr Volkens had been reinstated to full duties at the Queensland Academy of Sport. As a result we would not schedule any meeting with him to discuss the issue.

Mr Gilbert responded by saying that although the DPP had dropped charges Mr Volkens had not been found innocent. He then stated that he accepted our decision not to hold a meeting, and terminated the call.
