

Many thanks for your most welcome sincere & very gracious letter. I feel it so very much that you have forgiven me I have prayed so often that this would happen as all that happened was entirely my fault - not yours. You were the innocent one.

I'm sure Almighty God & His Blessed Mother had at last given the Grace & help that was needed. Daily I have prayed for you, your dear husband & family for so very long that Almighty God would give you the Grace to forgive me as I said you were never to blame.

Yes, it has haunted & troubled me over all these years. As you said Why! Why! Why! It had never happened to me before nor since.

I have made so many General Confessions asking God to forgive me for what had happened. For all the sorrow & sadness I caused you for so long.

I am in the twilight of my life & not long to go. At least you have given me Comfort in the fact that you have forgiven me. I am so sorry I caused you all that agony, & as you said that Shame & guilt I was responsible for. There was never any guilt on your part. I was to blame all the way.

Many thanks for contacting me & offering your prayers - May Almighty God & His Mother grant you all those special Graces you have asked for. Please, please say a little one for me sometime. I will never forget to pray for you & yours. Mae
