Miss L.M. Roberts.

REDACTED

Dear Miss Roberts,

Thank you very much for your letter. It was good to know that you have received some help from reading the book "Child Care and the Growth of Love". Thank you for the cheque covering the cost of this.

It may be possible for you to get from the local library a copy of "The Professional Houseparent" by Eva Burmeister. This is an American book and one of the standard text books for all child care study courses in the States as well as England.

We are sending you a copy of the Mission Constitution which has in it the Doctrinal Statement. This is the same Statement referred to in the Retta Dixon Home notes. The Principles and Practice do not apply to staff workers at the Retta Dixon Homes.

You mentioned getting the doctor's certificate and it would be a help if this were included when sending the answers to the preliminary questionnaire. We are sending a copy of the medical certificate usually used for applications.

You asked also in your letter the address for Mr. Blacket and it is - G.A. Blacket, 97 The Boulevard, Dulwich Hill.

Praying with you that the Lord will continue to guide you and show you very clearly what He would have you do.

With warmest Christian greetings from us all.

Yours sincerely,
In Christ Jesus,

E.A. COLLINS
