

Renewing your Working with Children Check

Your WWC check expires after five years and will need to be renewed if you intend to continue with 'child-related work'.

The expiry date is clearly marked on the front and back of your card and a renewal application form will be posted to you approximately eight (8) weeks before your WWC Check expires. If you do not receive a renewal application form please check that your current mailing address is up to date with the Department of Justice by going to the WWC Online Change of Details. If your details are correct but you have not received your renewal application form, please call the Information Line on 1300 652 879.

For more information visit the Working with Children Check website and go to 'Renewing Your Check' and Renewals Frequently Asked Questions.
