I've checked s33 of the Summary Offences Act and it seems that the provision re requiring permission of the Minister to commence a prosecution was in place by the time of the laying of these Infos (1993-4).
I have checked the 4 boxes found by Martin re Glencross, Hawkes and Perkins. There is an advice from RED to the police re what charges to lay, but I cannot find anything to indicate the Minister's permission on the file. The copies of the Infos which I have don't have any such scribble on them either.
