

FOR INFORMATION OF THE POLICE PROSECUTOR:

As per the details endorsed on the offence details of the A.P. - this suspect has alluded Police for two years with regards to Counts 1 - 3 inclusive. His whereabouts during that period of time was unknown. Police attended at the home address of the defendant's son on Friday 10/9/93 and located defendant living in a caravan in the rear yard of the premises. The defendant has been residing at his son's address for some time but it is unlikely that he will be able to return to this address.

The suspect is believed to be implicated with a number of other persons in South Australia that deal with Child Pornography. Court Bail should be opposed on the grounds that it will give all involved an opportunity to dispose of any further evidence. Police also fear that those involved may interfere with witnesses.

Upon searching the suspects caravan numerous films, video cassettes and other items have been seized and time is required to view such material. There is a possibility that further offences may be charged at a later date and further victims identified. Time is required to conduct further investigations.
