

Red Zone (current)

- Current Suicidal thoughts and behaviours
- Early psychosis and psychotic disorders, such as Schizophrenia
- Eating disorders, such as Anorexia Nervosa
- Trauma-related problems, such as Post-traumatic Stress Disorder (nightmares, easily triggered to aggression, soiling, bedwetting, increased sleep, risk taking behaviours, lack of regard for personal safety, sexualised behaviours)
- Serious disturbances of attachment and carer-child relationships
- Complex anxiety disorders, including severe school refusal, panic attacks
- Complex developmental and behavioural disorders (intellectual impairment, Reactive Attachment Disorder, Oppositional Defiant Disorder [ODD], or ODD [“not otherwise specified”]), Verified Impairment (Hearing, Physical, Intellectual, Social-Emotional), Autism, Foetal Alcohol
- Emerging personality disturbances (current hallucinations, causing distress to the child, the child perceives it as a problem)
- Substance use or substance use disorders (current daily use of illicit substance use – marijuana, prescription drugs, sniffing petrol/deodorants/glue/paint etc)
- Grief & Loss issues (sorry cuts, breaking things, smashing windows, “meltdown” behaviour, inability to regulate emotions and behaviour)
- Cruelty to animals (intentional killing or attempts to kill or significantly harm an animal, interference with the animal after killing it)
- Frequent absconding or absconding at night (and engaging in risk taking behaviours, &/or illegal activities)
- Sexualised behaviour (to self & others, gender related, physical or verbal)
- Children in Care (children on long term child protection orders, involvement with CPIU or ongoing court matters, Youth justice matters)
- Children in out-of-home care (couch surfing, residing in a Youth Shelter etc)
- Children with current Youth Justice orders/involvement or who have recently been released from Youth detention (If young person has had 2 x detentions, request release of details of current involvement with Forensic Mental Health to aid ongoing support for the young person)
- Current mental health diagnosis without a safety – support plan.
- Current use of violence (physical)
- Yarn carrying (intent to cause others harm).
- Current identified missing person/s by QPS.
- Homelessness
- Child who has had an organ transplant
- Type 1 Diabetes
- Type II diabetes (and non-compliant with care plan)
- Rheumatic Heart Disease
- Social-Emotional Support Needs (Cultural basis)

Orange Zone

- Major Depression and other serious disorders of mood regulation
- Non-suicidal self-injury
- Eating disorders, such as Bulimia
- Trauma-related problems, such as Post-traumatic Stress Disorder (no regard for safety of self or others, withdrawal behaviours, anxiety/worries around certain triggers or times of day, risk taking behaviours, lack of regard for personal safety, sexualised behaviours)
- Serious disturbances of attachment and carer-child relationships
- Complex anxiety disorders, including severe school refusal, panic attacks
- Complex developmental and behavioural disorders
- Emerging personality disturbances (diagnosis of emerging personality disturbance, no noted distress for the young person at current time)
- Substance use or substance use disorders (history of or infrequent use of illicit substance use – marijuana, prescription drugs, sniffing petrol/deodorants/glue/paint etc)
- Grief & Loss issues (feeling so sad they can't function, sleeping, not eating, constant worries)
- Cruelty to animals (attempts to significantly harm an animal, accidentally killing or harming an animal)
- Frequent absconding (during day for food or avoiding class)
- Children in Care (children on short term child protection orders, involvement with CPIU or ongoing court matters, Youth justice matters)
- Children with recent Youth Justice orders/involvement (may have recently completed Boot Camp Order [BCO], Community Release Order [CRO], Youth Justice Conferencing , completed Community Service Orders)
- Current mental health diagnosis, obtaining support (internal or external).
- Type II diabetes (and compliant with care plan)

Yellow Zone

- Trauma-related problems, such as Post-traumatic Stress Disorder
- Serious disturbances of attachment and carer-child relationships
- Anxiety disorders, including severe school refusal
- Complex developmental and behavioural disorders
- Emerging personality disturbances (diagnosis of emerging personality disturbance, no noted distress for the young person at current time)
- Substance use or substance use disorders (history of but not currently using illicit substance use – marijuana, prescription drugs, sniffing petrol/deodorants/glue/paint etc)
- Grief & Loss issues (Identifying the need for support at time of loss or anniversary date of loss, significant "firsts" eg Christmas, birthdays, mother's/father's days etc)
- Cruelty to animals (accidentally/unintentionally killing or harming an animal)
- Infrequent absconding
- Children in Care (children on IPA's – Intervention with Parental Agreement)
- Mental Health diagnosis (not current).

Green Zone (Case Managed by Pastoral Care or Class Teacher)

- Whole of School activities to develop a sense of belonging (The Shalom Community, the Shalom Way)
- Protective Behaviours Program
- Rock & Water Program
- Zones of Regulation Program
- Pastoral Care Program
- Resourceful Adolescent Program
- KidsMatters activities across Primary
- Early Help Seeking education sessions
- Health Promotion activities
- Positive role models
- Extra-curricular activities – Cultural connection activities, sport activities, music/dance/arts activities
- Young Men's/Women's programs
- Leadership Programs
- Year 12 Young Men's/Women's Programs