Dear James,

Your second letter of communication states that "YMCA will... ensure that information is distributed from the YMCA via both electronic email and direct mail." (to parents)

We are not the ONLY parents who did not receive communication from you. We know of at least one parent who has had NO notification whatsoever from you despite the fact that her child is attending a centre where the alleged child abuser worked.

Jaqui Barnat was unable to explain why we were not emailed in the first instance. She was not able to explain why the 'MAY HAVE sent it to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was not a 'definitely sent to [REDACTED]. I do not accept that you mailed anything to our address but are just covering yourselves from any legal liability. I would appreciate an apology for not being informed at the same time as other parents. I would have removed [REDACTED] a week earlier if I had the information when other people were informed.

As a parent I am not satisfied with email notification and expect direct mail as promised by your organisation in writing on your document dated 20th October 2011. Are you aware that not all parents have access to email. Emails do transmit information more quickly but if you say you are going to communicate in direct mail as well then follow through on your promises.

How are you going to ensure that you notify ALL parents? What mailing procedure is causing this problem?

The fact that it took Jaqui Barnat 6 days to return my messages because the records of my contact number was incorrect despite the fact I notified you of this change when it occurred and each time I left a message for her to contact me, indicates to me that there may be a record keeping problem or communication problem as well.

Yours Sincerely
 AW

and [REDACTED]

Dear YMCA Parents and Families,

We appreciate just how challenging the recent weeks have been in regards to the charges laid and the impact this is having on families within the YMCA community.

Please be assured that the YMCA has done, and will continue to do, everything legally possible.

Attached is an additional update to ensure you all remain up to date with proceedings.

Regards,
