Church of England North Coast Children's Home

In reference to your letter dated March 19, 2007.

Simon, you have got to be joking - there is no way in the world I would accept the distal amount offered by Comben and the Diocese of Grafton for injuries sustained as a result of abuses perpetrated against me whilst a resident at the Church of England North Coast Children's Home at Lismore in New South Wales.

You have read my Statuary Declaration and other documents. You know what happened to me. Hold the phone, there's something terribly terribly wrong happening right before our eyes.

Since the start of this compensation claim, there have been lies, innuendo and deceit, and a blatant display of criticism and arrogance.

Comben's abrasive attitude focussed toward the victim's of abuse, has been bloody atrocious. He is one of the few men I have encounted, who gave his life to God, who is so horrid and heartless.

Ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls, I have been involved in another of the great con jobs in the history of the Anglican Church of Australia.

What a sad day for all the victim's who were abused in an Anglican run Home. Comben and the Diocese of Grafton should hang their heads in shame for a month of Sunday's.

This entire case has been a tragedy for the victim's. I am sad for them all, and I must accept some of the blame for what has happened

I need to inform you I intend to contact the National media in a day or two and provide them with all the information I can gather, starting as early as 2005.

Simon, maybe you should alert Comben and friends to 'brace' themselves. There are others who will be involved in this, and I can assure you I have not put words into their mouths or ideas into their heads.

Regards,

Richard Campion
