REDACTED

Dear Mr. McLary

January 23, 2008

Church of England North Coast Children's Home (Photograph details on bottom of page)

I respond to your letter dated January 18, 2008.

I appreciate your reply but waiting for Archbishop Aspinall to return from holiday is not good enough.

A letter of serious complaint sent by myself on behalf of CD [redacted] was posted to Ms. Jenni Woodhouse of the Diocese of Sydney and Bishop Keith Slater of the Diocese of Grafton on June 7, 2007. CD [redacted] was brutally and cowardly abused in the Church of England North Coast Children's Home in Lismore.

It is January 23, 2008 and CD [redacted] has not had a reply from the Anglican Church. That is over eight months since the letter was sent, and that is a bloody disgrace.

Even though Archbishop of Brisbane -- the Most Reverend Dr. Phillip Aspinall and Bishop Keith Slater are on holidays, and with us not knowing when they will return, CD [redacted] deserves a response now -- be it in the form of an encouraging letter or a kind phone call. Can this be done please?

CD [redacted] has lost faith in a system that the Anglican Church has created, and it would be pleasing if he was contacted now -- to day.

A quick phone call to me and I will put you in contact with CD [redacted].

Kind regards,

Richard 'Tommy' Campion

Photograph Facts: The Church of England North Coast Children's Home sign in the Diocese of Lismore was erected near the entrance. As a child I would swing on the bars as CA [redacted] and I waited for our father to visit. After a time he didn't show and we never saw him again. When I was older I would climb to the top of that sign. The sign was there when I arrived in the home in 1948/49 and it was still there when I left in 1962. It was there when I left Lismore in 1970 and it was still there when this photo was taken in 1977. The sign was still there in the early 80's -- yet it was removed when the building ceased to function as a home for children. The Anglican Church denies they run the Church of England North Coast Children's Home and that is a hard cold lie. That is a lie against God and all those who were tragically abused. It was a hell-home full of hatred and brutal bashings -- it was an Anglican place that should have been safe, but which was clearly not.
