In reference: Church of England North Coast Children's Home (CENCCH)

In my letter of December 3, 2008 I offered a complaint against Bishop Keith Slater and members of the Anglican Church Diocese of Grafton for their refusal to admit to the truth of child abuse and their contempt for abused victims.

It's been over two months and I have not received a reply. The lack of consideration given to this serious problem is completely unfair.

If you remember in my December 3, 2008 letter I wrote: "Even though the Bishop and members of the diocese have stated they have never "expressed disbelief" at my story (October 29, 2008); that being the Anglican Church were the licensing authority for the Church of England North Coast Children's Home in Lismore, NSW and had the duty of care for the children who resided there, they still refuse to express belief of the Anglican Church's complete involvement with the Church of England North Coast Children's Home."

The fact that the church is with-holding information and distorting the truth of child abuse is disgraceful.

Written in the Anglican Church National Code for Personal Behaviour and the Practice of Pastoral Ministry by Clergy and Church Workers, "Faithfulness in Service", Point 6.9 under the section noted as "Standards for Clergy", it reads: "You are not knowingly to make statements that are false, misleading or deceptive." Noted under (2) "Key Terms- Emotional Abuse" (acts of omissions that have caused, or could cause emotional harm or lead to serious behavioural or cognitive disorders), it reads: "Ignoring a person openly and pointedly."

I would appreciate an answer as soon as possible.
