Dear Bishop Peter,

I had not seen this article but I have been friends with Tommy for over 5 years now. He has been my rock. My brother refuses to deal with it (he was in the Home with me) and we haven't spoken for over three years, my father sticks his head in the sand because he is the one that sent us there to spite our mother and my mother has destroyed her life with alcohol abuse as well as a result of the guilt she feels for what happened to us..

Without Tommy I would be lost.

Regards,

CB

Dear CB

I have attached a link to an article about your home in the years prior to your time. It is moving and as you read it you may experience many emotions. Don't forget the number of the Melbourne Professional Standards Director I sent you.
