Dear Sirs,

RE: NORTH COAST CHILDRENS' HOME

We refer to your letter dated 15 June 2006.

We are informed by Rev'd Pat Comben that he has written to the Counsellor working with Mr. Campion advising that it was beyond his own delegated discretion to provide further money and that further discussions would be needed.

Rev'd Comben informs us that his discretion is limited to situations of urgent or immediate support or situations where there is a clear movement or closeness to resolution of any matters at issue.

To obtain further funds for Mr. Campion, Rev'd Comben will require material to be put before the Professional Standards Committee to show the Church's interest in the matter, the use to which the money is to be put and the immediate and long term benefits anticipated.

We are further requested to advise that monies already supplied or to be supplied in the immediate future are to be taken as an act of Christian charity and are not to be taken as signifying any admissions on behalf of the Church or as an indication of unlimited commitment in the future.

Yours faithfully,
FOOTT, LAW & CO.
