File Note*From: Greg Laurtisen-DammRe: NCCHMatter No: 526432Date: 21 February 2007

Telephone call Carmine at Morris Blackburn & Cashman at 3.05pm.

I informed him that we acted for clients claiming against the Anglican Church. I informed he we were currently in negotiations and had come to a stale mate so to speak.

I informed him that our offices had communicated previously or someone who assisted CH [redacted] and in that correspondence it was noted that an offer had been made to CH [redacted] in the amount of $75,000.00.

I informed Carmine that the Anglican Church had represented to us that they never made an offer in relation to Kitchingham.

I requested assistance with a file note or a letter noting the offer be emailed to us.

Carmine seemed a bit hesitant and I explained the situation more fully. I explained to him that if they had represented to us, they had not made an offer and in fact they had then they would be misleading us. This could be a way of getting around a negotiation stale mate. He queried as to what assistance we could help him with. I reiterated that in our previous correspondence we informed them that we had a video of June O'Neill talking about the pony whip – if that was relevant. Otherwise we could assist him in any way it was possible for us to do so.

He informed me that he would get instructions from his client about sending a letter to us saying that an offer had been made and he would be in contact with me within 24 hours.

Telephone conversation ceased at 3.10pm.

Units engaged (including dictation of file note) – two units.
