

To Peter Ketsa

I have instructed you to accept the offer today of $265,000 plus reasonable costs made by the Divorce of his name. This is for the abuse of I suffered by Father Rex Brown when I was aged 16 to 20 years. I will clear $249,680.00 after the Divorce pays $10,000 towards your legal costs of $34,320 (incl. counsel's fees). I know that this settlement will be subject to recoveries by Centrelink and medicare. I have told you I haven't received Centrelink benefits since I was about 20 yrs old. I have had counselling from Prof. Dooley for many years & I know medicare may be entitled to a recovery. I instruct you to seek to have my medicare recovery waived as this settlement is on the nature of criminal injuries compensation.
