Dear Jennifer,

I do earnestly hope as you process your recent experiences with the Church that significant healing occurs for you.

I am confident that it will, and I am sure that the Bishop's letter of apology will be significantly helpful in that regard, but as you allude to in your email there is no substitute for 'team Jennifer' in terms of the power of your family and friend's love and support.

Jennifer, I personally appreciate the kind words. They mean a lot. And, as I stated at the meeting I am here to offer assistance over the longer term so don't hesitate to drop me an email or to telephone at any time.

Jennifer for now, kind regards and best wishes.

Kind regards,

Michael Salmon

Director of Professional Standards Office
