 Consultant Psychologist
 Post Office Box 157
 PADDINGTON Q 4064

Dear Lynn,

I acknowledge receipt of your recommendation with regard to Mrs Joan Isaacs dated 7th April 2000. Included with your letter was an account for 3 consultations, 10th March, 24th March and 7th April.

Please pardon the delay in responding to your correspondence, I had reason to consult other authorities with regard to ongoing payment beyond the agreed ten consultations.

I would like to advise you that at this stage I am willing to waive any detailed professional assessment of the benefit of ongoing consultations.

I am willing to authorise a second series of ten consultations. After that, we would look for something more detailed relating the necessity for ongoing consultation to the consequences of Frank Derriman's relationship with Mrs Isaacs.

I enclose a cheque to cover the consultations in your account of the 7 April and I will copy this letter to Mrs Joan Isaacs.

Yours sincerely

Bishop J.J. Gerry D.D.
 Auxiliary Bishop / Brisbane

C.C. Mrs Joan Isaacs
